Subject (Appt N)

Whether Mr C Vandevarayya, office Assistant to the Dfl of Education in Mysore may sign office papers to Govt, Chief Engineer etc for the Dfl of Education

D O letter dated the 31st January 1904 from the Dfl of Edn

When it was decided that Mr Venkatasawmy should be drafted for inspection work as "asstt to the Dfl on inspection duty", it was thought necessary to give an "office asstt" to the Dfl of Education to attend to those duties as were being done by ~~the Dfl~~ Mr T R Venkata-sawmy had so. It was with that intention that Mr C Vandevarayya was appointed "office asstt" to the Dfl (vide remarks of the Second Councillor in his minute dated the 24th May 1902) and (the Govt Resolu and order No 806 7-24 18 dated the 15th July 1902)

Flag A

Flag B

As it was not decided that Mr C Vandevarayya (Pay Rs 175-5-7) should be treated as a gazetted Offr

his appointment as office asstt was not notified in the Gazette

It is not clear ~~how~~ why the Comptroller ~~has his objection~~ to accept bills etc
signed by Mr C Vendevaiyya

If the question of gazetting Mr C Vandevaiyya as office asstt to the DJC of Cos be decided now, a notificawill, it is subd, have to be issued. After ~~the~~ the Comptroller has to be informed by a govt order that bills etc signed by Mr Vandevaiyya may be accepted

as directed Ill 1/12/04

I dont think we can gazette this office Asst
his pay being Rs 175-5-200
and Govt-having declared that Ed Officers upto Cl I alone should be deemed gazetted officers After all, I understand from the Comptroller that gazetting is not indispensable & that an order of the Govt dispensing by the office will answer the purpose - Such an order may be issued accord at once - Otherwise the very object with which Govt gave the Dfl an office Assistant in place of the Vaikalastan Nadu would be defeated, and much avoidable delay and inconvenience would be occasioned - Please submit this to the Dewan with a draft for favour of early approval - C

My dear Mr Srinivasengar,

I wish to let you know the circumstance I feel because my Assistant Mr Vasudeva is not gazetted I asked the Comptroller of grant in aid & contingent bills signed by him will be accepted by the Treasury He says the Govern

But unless the Assistant is gazetted, he not vested with ministerial Officers, for him even to sign routine papers for me seems out of the way He does sign routine papers now But during my absence of work is it so or effectively he wants also sign letters to Government, the Comptroller, the Superintending Engineers &c Unless that is done no real help or relief can be given to me Kindly consider this difficulty, which

ment Order appointing Mr Vasudeva in place of Mr Venkatasamy Naidu as my clerk Vasudeva has been called Office Assistant & the latter was Assistant I myself do not see that there is any difference as far as office work is concerned Mr Venkatasamy so long as he was in the office was office assistant and nothing more I am glad to inform you that as far as office work is concerned, Mr Vasudeva is doing it much better than his predecessor and is giving me much more help than Venkatasamy ever did Important clerical work at headquarters has detained me till now but I must soon be touring During my absence all correspondence pertaining and contingent bills must be signed by the Assistant here

can only be removed of the Assistant is forgotten I see that even the Police Inspec tor General & Forest Inspec tor General have each an Assistant called Personal Assistant My work is I believe much heavier
if not more important than that of the Chief Inspectors General If you approve of my request, I shall write officially on the subject, unless you can kindly pass the necessary orders on this letter. The form of an early reply will oblige me.

Yours truly

H J BHABHA Esq
Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To L Anantaswamy Rao Esq,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments,
Bangalore

Sir,

With reference to para 3 of Order No 806-7-Ed 18 dated Bangalore 15th July 1902, I have the honour to inform you that Mr T R Venkataswamy Rayudu Assistant gave over charge of his duties and Mr C. Vasudevayya entered upon his duties as Office Assistant on the 1st December 1903. As however Mr Vasudevayyas appointment has not been gazetted and he is called Office Assistant in contradistinction to Assistant, the Controller objects to authorizing treasuries to accept grant-in-aid bills and other bills signed by him for the Inspector General. As I have frequently in the course of my duties to go out of Bangalore should have an Assistant as hitherto who can not only sign the above bills but also all letters to Government, Heads of Department and other high officers To remove the inconvenience I now feel for the despatch of work I request Government will be good enough to gazette the appointment of Mr. Vasudevaiya as 'Assistant' In the nature of the duties performed hitherto by Mr. Venkata-swami Nayudu and those now performed by Mr. Vasudevaiya I submit that there is no difference.

I have the honour to be,
Sir
Your most obedient Servant
